

Mita Bedi

CEO & Co-founder, Resonate CX

Transforms parent feedback into higher occupancy, stronger retention, and happier educators.

About Mita

Parent satisfaction shouldn't be random. As CEO and Co-Founder of Resonate CX, Mita Bedi has spent over 20 years turning feedback into a predictable driver of growth. With experience across IBM, Commonwealth Bank, and Infosys, she has helped childcare providers across 600 centres lift retention, improve satisfaction, and reduce churn.

This Indian-Australian entrepreneur and mother of two has led executive sessions across Australia and the UK, sharing practical frameworks on staff retention, AI-powered churn prevention, and making exceptional experiences systematic.

“

I cannot imagine how we could replace this system and the insights it provides now that it's embedded into our day-to-day management.

Sam King, Chief Executive Officer, Tops Day Nurseries
